Sirhans File Suit

part 3
2/16

NEW YORK—The family of Sirhan Sirhan, convicted assassin of Sen. Robert F. Kennedy, filed suit to prevent publication of a book and to recover $2 million in damages. The suit charges that the book contains "adverse and incriminating disclosures." It asks the court to order the publisher, E. P. Dutton & Co., to show cause why the book by Robert E. Kaiser should not be kept off the market. Sirhan contends informatin in the book could adversely affect his appeal attempts in California courts.
